Prime Lambs -2775

Biggest yarding of prime lambs was met with good demand with the top end not quite reaching the highs of last week. Medium lambs had a very good sale.

|         |               |
|---------|---------------|
| Tops    | $300 - $350 |
| Good    | $220 - $260 |
| Mediums | $190 - $210 |
| Light   | $150 - $180 |

Prime Ewes - 550

After last week's very strong mutton sale prices eased slightly by $5 to $10 per head.

|         |               |
|---------|---------------|
| Tops    | $280 - $336 |
| Good    | $220 - $275 |
| Mediums | $160 - $215 |
| Light   | $115 - $160 |

Store Sheep - 500

Smaller yarding of store lambs/ewe lambs all counted were met with good demand, quality a bit mixed. Best shorn hoggets sold for $150 per head.

|         |               |
|---------|---------------|
| Tops    | $140 - $150 |
| Good    | $120 - $130 |
| Mediums | $110 - $120 |
| Light   | $100 - $110 |

Prime Cattle - 230

Another large yarding of prime cattle.

The best quality steers sold for up to $3.36 per kg for a very tidy pen of Angus steers.

The heifer market was on par for heavier types while the lighter end struggled and dropped by 20 cents per kg.

A very tidy pen of Charolais/Simmental heifers at 523kgs sold for $3.36 per kg.

Steers                      $2.90 - $3.36

Heifers                     $2.75 - $3.36

Cows                        $1.80 - $2.46

Bulls                        $2.64 - $3.10
