

Coalgate Sale Yards

13 January 2022

Prime Lambs – 1400

A nice sized yarding of Prime Lambs with quality up on last week, saw the market firm on previous weeks.

Tops	$180 - $220
Good	$160 - $180
Mediums	$145 - $160
Lights	$120 - $145

Prime Ewes – 800

A solid sale in the mutton department today with some quality Ewes yarded reaching $271 per head. A predominately medium/good conditioned yarding selling at similar levels to last week.

Tops	$220 - $271
Good	$175 - $210
Mediums	$140 - $175
Light	$110 - $135

Store Lambs – 800

A good gallery of buyers attended todays sale from Central, Mid and North Canterbury. Top price was for a pen of 145 Down x Lambs fetching $136 a head, from Benmore Graziers. Smaller to medium weight Lambs were met with good demand.

Tops	$125 - $136
Good	$115 - $120
Mediums	$100 - $110
Light	$86 - $95

Prime Cattle – 133

The better-quality Steers kicked along very well. The best price was $3.42 kg for Speckle Park Steers weighing 517kg, $1768 per head, with the heaviest Hereford Friesian x Steers fetching $3.29 kg weighing in at 635kg, $2148 per head.

Steers $3.12 - $3.42

Heifers $3.00 - $3.26

Bulls $2.90 - $3.16

Store Cattle – 166

A mixed quality yarding, some late born Beef bred yearling Heifers made $3.00 - $3.25 kg, $710 per head, $950 per head for Angus, Angus Hereford x and Hereford Heifers

Yearling Heifers $710 - $950