Prime Lambs

A moderate sized yarding saw prices lift slightly by $2 - $3 per head at Coalgate today. The top Lambs making $203.

Large	$180 - $203
Medium	$145 - $175
Small	$120 - $145

Prime Ewes

The Ewe sale was on par with previous week's sales.

Large	$150 - $170
Medium	$120 - $140
Small	$80 - $110

Store Lambs

A large forward line of Lambs from the Rakaia Gorge led the way in the Store Lambs today. Another consignment from Mt Somers of mainly shorn Half Breds didn't have the following that their shorn X Bred cousins had. A lot of tail end Lambs, which sold to levels of recent weeks.

Large	$140 - $160
Medium	$100 - $130
Small	$80 - $110

High Country Calf

A very good day brought an enthusiastic gallery of buyers to the High Country Calf sale. A very good line up of quality high country Beef Calves were met with very strong bidding and competition was strong. The best line up of genuine high-country Calves in the Canterbury District. Angus Steers were sought after, and smaller type calves had a very sound sale.

Angus Steers	$3.90 - $4.20/kg
Charolais Steers	$3.80 - $4.00/kg
Angus Heifers	$3.20 - $3.50/kg
Charolais Heifers	$3.50 - $3.80/kg

A top day was had by all.
